CLIENT SPOTLIGHT

Tim is a veteran who proudly served in Iraq, but has struggled with PTSD since exiting the service in 2007. His battle with mental health and addiction led to hospitalization and a leave of absence from his job. His VA doctors recommended he be medically retired. Though he receives disability, it is almost impossible for Tim and his wife to make ends meet for their family with two small children. Tim has turned to the food pantry supported by United Way. He believes it has made the difference in keeping his family fed.
